Our Enrollment Process

Students are not accepted on a first come first served basis. Decisions are made only after the application deadline, and are based on maintaining a balanced classroom environment and a supportive parent community. Returning students and siblings of former and current students, who have attended wBees Forest School, are given priority.

The first round of decision letters will be emailed on January 15th, 2021. Upon written notice of approval, a non-refundable deposit of $2000 is due, which is applied toward the final payment of the year's tuition. In order to secure a spot, deposits must be received no later than January 29th, 2021. The second round of decision letters will be emailed on February 1st, 2021 with deposits due February 15th. Parents of children who have been placed on our waiting list will be contacted as space becomes available.

wBees Forest School does not discriminate based on race, religion, family structure, gender identification, sexual preference or national/ethnic origin.
